AGREEMENT

BETWEEN THE

Board of Counsel of the Temperance Educational Association

AND THE .

Trustees of The American University, Washington, D. C.

Whereas, the Board of Counsel of the Temperance Educational Association, composed of the following persons, namely, W. T. Harris, LL.D., Mary H. Hunt, A. H. Plumb, D.D., Joseph Cook, LL.D., Daniel Dorchester, D.D., William A. Mowry, Ph.D., William E. Sheldon, T. D. Crothers, M.D., I. N. Quimby, M.D., L. D. Mason, M.D., Josiah Strong, D.D., Jesse B. Thomas, D.D., W. C. Roberts, D.D., and Bishop E. R. Hendrix, D.D., and having power perpetually to fill vacancies in and enlarge its membership, not to exceed twenty-five in all, has been legally constituted for the creation and maintenance of a College of scientific investigation and instruction in physiology and hygiene, with especial reference to the nature of alcohol and kindred substances, together with their effects upon mankind; and,

Whereas, this said Board of Counsel heretofore presented a petition to the Board of Trustees of "The American University," Washington, D. C., praying for the creation of a College in the said University "for such original investigation and study as will furnish to the country the needed teachers of teachers in the new and now almost universally mandatory branch in the Public Schools that is popularly termed Scientific or Physiological Temperance," with the understanding that the aforesaid Board of Counsel should undertake to raise and transfer to the proper authorities thereof a sufficient sum of money or endowment for the support of the desired College; and,

Whereas, the said Board of Trustees of The American University acted upon said petition by passing resolutions, as follows, namely, "Resolved, that we, the Board of Trustees of The American University, agree to organize such a College of scientific temperance instruction as is requested, on the condition that an endowment of at least $250,000 be provided therefor," and "Resolved, that a committee be appointed, consisting of Bishop John F. Hurst, LL.D., Dr. Charles H. Payne, LL.D., and Vice-Chancellor Samuel L. Beiler, Ph.D., to arrange all details with the sub-committee of said Board of Counsel, and that when these committees have completed the detail arrangements, the President and Secretary of this Board be authorized to sign an agreement in harmony with this action;" and,

Whereas, the said two committees have met and completed the detail arrangements contemplated;

Now, therefore, in consideration of these premises, we, the Board of Trustees of The American University, hereby covenant and agree that the detail arrangements completed and agreed upon by the said two committees shall be, and hereby are, herein assented to and made a part of this agreement.

And we further covenant and agree that upon the payment to the Treasurer of this University of the sum of $250,000, or such lesser sum as shall be deemed by said Board of Trustees sufficient for the beginning of the work of said School, a College of The American University shall be inaugurated for such original investigation, instruction, and study as will furnish the country with the needed teachers of teachers in the branches of Scientific or Physiological Temperance herein agreed upon and determined by the said two committees, reduced to writing and forming a part hereof as aforementioned, which department shall be called "The College of Scientific Temperance," being a school of investigation and instruction in Physiology, Hygiene, and Pathology, with special reference to the nature of alcohol and kindred substances, together with their effects upon mankind, and including the following studies as they are related to the purpose of this College, namely: Toxicology, Chemistry, Biology, Psychology, Ethics, Criminology, Law, Political Economy, Reformatory Measures, and Pedagogy, with such other studies as may be found necessary.

And we further covenant and agree that the said endowment fund shall never be diverted from the purpose for which it was raised and made, and that if any such diversion shall be made or attempted, that then the said fund shall revert to the said Board of Counsel.

And we further covenant and agree that the said College of Scientific Temperance shall publish from time to time the results of the scientific investigations of its faculty and students, especially such as will be of practical value in promoting the purpose the College.

And we further covenant and agree that the Board of Counsel shall be authorized to exercise a power of visitation and investigation of the College, and of recommendation to the Board of Trustees of the University concerning it.

Now, therefore, the foregoing covenants and agreements are hereby approved and accepted by the aforesaid bodies jointly and severally, viz., the Board of Counsel of the Temperance Educational Association, and the Board of Trustees of the American University.
