Mr J. P. Morgan

Dear Sir:

We beg to hand you a letter just received respecting the execution of the Certificate. We trust arrangements can be made to let the Company have time sufficient to execute the work properly; for if hurried beyond a certain point that will be used as an unanswerable excuse should any exception be taken to the painting.

On hearing again from Mr. Hinzgen, we shall communicate with you without delay.

Yours faithfully
W. E. Audsley
