

ABOUTENIACE

HISTORY

Latino lesbians and gay men of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area organized in among its members by holding regular the summer of 1987 to form ENLACE. The principal objectives of the organization are to work toward the abolishment of discrimination against Latino lesbians and gay men because of their ethnicity, sex, or sexual orientation; to develop leadership ability among Latino lesbians and gay men; to promote Latino culture and heritage; and to build a strong political base for our community.

CULTURAL\EDUCATIONAL

ENLACE encourages positive attitudes between and among gay and non-gay Latinos as well as in the gay community as a whole through educational forums and cultural events; by promoting awareness of AIDS and other health issues; by advocat-Ing for people with AIDS; and by promoting awareness of other issues relevant to our community such as in civil, legal and housing rights.

SOCIAL

ENLACE cultivates positive relationships meetings, cultural and social events and by presenting forums on relevant topics; by reaching out to other lesbian and gay Latinos; and by providing a non-commercial social alternative in the D.C. area.

POLITICAL

ENLACE forms its political identity by raising the consciousness of Latino lesbian gay men on local, national, and international issues; by cooperating with local and national organizations in pursuit of health and human rights; and supporting the struggles of all people in the fight for human rights and civil liberties.
